PLAN CAMPAIGN FOR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE WORK

American City Bureau To Work With Local Body
For Three Years.

The American City Bureau has been enlisted to work with the Ada Chamber of Commerce in a campaign to broaden that body's scope of activity in its work for the upbuilding of the city. An agreement was entered into last night at a meeting of the board of directors with the bureau for putting on an intensive campaign here to enroll every man, woman and child in Ada as an active Chamber of Commerce worker. The bureau is to work with the Chamber of Commerce for a period of three years in helping to outline and carry out a program of industrial expansion and civic betterment.

D. H. McFarland, representing the American City Bureau, addressed the meeting, explaining the method in which the membership campaign is put on and the way in which the bureau functions in helping to carry out the program of activity for three years.

The bureau has been in existence for eight years, he said, during which time it has served 250 cities, including five in Oklahoma. By enlisting everyone who has the interest of the community at heart, he said, the organization is changed from a mere handful of workers to a body fully representative of the city.

"Instead of standing on the corners and asking 'What is the Chamber of Commerce doing?' the citizens will say instead 'What are we doing?'" explained Mr. McFarland, "and we work toward getting the fullest co-operation of everyone in the community."

Mr. McFarland explained that no great outside influence could be expected to come here and build up the city.

"Your city will be just what you, the people who live here, make it," he said. "The best results in the building of a greater city can be accomplished only by utilizing the latent forces you have here, and capitalizing to the utmost all of your natural resources and advantages."

The American City Bureau begins its work in a community with a three weeks educational campaign on the value of co-operation in community building and the possibilities of a chamber of commerce. Following this the membership drive is launched, conducted by a team of business men under the direction of a bureau worker. A carefully prepared program is then put into effect.

To accomplish great things, the speaker said, it will be necessary for the Chamber of Commerce to spend money. It is proposed to raise approximately $15,000 a year for the next three years and with this amount the program of industrial expansion and civic betterment can be carried out in such a way as to insure positive results.

The meeting voted that the campaign should not start until after the general election and November 5 was set as the day for the big start.

INSTITUTE SEARCH FOR MURDERER

Freshman Charged With Murder of His Colleague.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22.—A nation-wide search was instituted today for William P. Brines, the University of Pennsylvania freshman, for whom a warrant was issued yesterday charging him with the murder of Elmer C. Drews, the Dartmouth college student slain here last Saturday night.

The young men were said by the police to have been close friends. Although the authorities have admitted they have discovered no motive for the killing, they declare they have a "large quantity of evidence which directly points to Brines as being responsible for the death of Drews." One theory of the police is that he was killed in a dispute over the purchase of an automobile. Before leaving his home in Philadelphia last Saturday night Drews told his father he intended buying a second-hand motor car, and there working on the case say "Brines' machine he intended purchasing."

A car found yesterday a mile from where Drews' body was found, said to have belonged to Brines, according to the detectives. In the car, which was stained with blood, was found an automatic pistol with two cartridges missing, and two empty bottles.

STEEL MAGNATE SEES BETTER TIMES AHEAD

By the Associated Press

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Business prospects are unusually bright both in the United States and abroad, Elbert Gary, head of the United States Steel corporation, declared in an address before the American Iron and Steel institute here today.

"Although this is a time for courage, composure and caution," Mr. Gary said, "the business sky is practically without cloud, as always there may be showers from time to time, but there is nothing in the atmosphere to indicate the approach of dangerous storms."

"If there should be a serious reaction and depression," he continued, "which seems improbable, it will be the fault of those who are connected with business operations, or those, who by reasons of official positions, improperly interfere and not because of any fundamental deficiencies in our resources and opportunities."

'TWEEN US AND THE GATE POST

Each day a reader of the News will ask a question on some topic of the day, and other readers will be called on for answers.

Today's Question

What do you think of the future outlook as portends to present business conditions?—C. P. Penrose, Ada Music company.

The Answers.

Bert Schlenker, Merchant—I think the excellent crops are a factor of safety in the business world. Panic howlers should quit shouting calamity and keep a level head.

Mrs. Lois Jones, Jones' Millinery—I think business will be normal in a few weeks. The people are more frightened than hurt. I see no cause for alarm.

Mrs. Orville Snead, Red Cross headquarters—Have less dirty politics and more business conditions will be all right.

E. L. Spencer, President Guaranty State Bank—While finances have been and are yet scarce, and the prices of some farm products and some lines of merchandise have seen declines, all is not lost by any means. Better conditions are ahead. The crisis has been passed.

Car Carpenter Backs Down on His Charge Against Ferris

William N. Doak.

William N. Doak, vice president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, has taken a leading part in settling the so-called "outlaw" strikes of railroad workers in various centers the past six months. His home is Roanoke, Va. He has been in Washington several years working in the interest of railroad employees and enlisting the aid of the White House and congress.

Harrell's statement which he is spreading broadcast over eastern Oklahoma that Scott Ferris ran for office on the republican ticket in Johnston county, Mo., eighteen years ago, and attributed by Harrell to W. C. Carpenter of Okmulgee, was today repudiated by Carpenter in the following signed statement:

"The statement that I made in regard to the Ferris campaign was that I voted for S. S. or S. F. Ferris or Harris in Missouri some eighteen years ago running on the republican ticket for state representative either in St. Clair or Henry county, Mo. In meeting Scott Ferris, I find that according to our conversation that he is a different man and that he never lived in any other county in Missouri except Newton. This is evidently mistaken identity and I have no intention of misrepresenting Scott Ferris, or any other man and I feel that this statement is common justice in the premises."

The fact that our honey has attracted such general notice wherever it has been shown should not only be encouraging to the present bee club boys; it should awaken the county as a whole to the possibilities of this section for the production of one of the greatest luxuries man has ever known. Pontotoc honey is hard to excel in either beauty or flavor. The Center Boys' Bee Club alone has won over forty dollars in premiums on it this fall, in addition to free trips to each of the state fairs.

Any boy having bees or expecting to buy bees should write County Agent Hill and get the advantage of the club instruction on the best way to care for them; and he should begin now to get ready to be in on the winnings at next fall's fairs and to help put Pontotoc county at the top of the list again.

MUST DEVISE NEW WAYS TO FINANCE FARM PRODUCTS

Bankers Should Help To Prevent Undue Price Drops.

By the Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Financing the farmers of the country in the marketing of their crops demands new methods of extending credit so as to prevent unjust price depreciation, Henry M. Robinson, a banker of Los Angeles, who was chairman of the United States Bituminous coal commission, declared today in addressing the convention of the American Bankers' association. A change in the bankers' point of view and the establishment by producers of co-operative marketing agencies were suggested as means for improving present conditions.

"There are many evidences," declared Mr. Robinson, "of growing dissatisfaction on the part of the producers of many commodities who claim they are being discriminated against by bankers or those in control of credit facilities, and there is constant agitation by such producers for an extension of the principle of co-operative marketing to remedy or at least relieve the situation."

"Bankers must meet this problem. There must be a modification of the old attitude. Whether this should be done through banking machinery or through proper co-operative marketing remains to be decided. However, some method must be devised for reducing the pressure on the producer which forces him to dispose of his crop, either at the moment the harvest is completed, or while its movement is under way, as this has too often been used as a means for price depreciation. Methods also must be discovered for lowering the cost of financing him."

The tendency of the co-operative organizations of producers is toward use of their great power to the disadvantage of other producers, Mr. Robinson said.

Regarding current practices in the movement of grain and cotton, Mr. Robinson said:

"For many years it has been accepted as part of the obligation of the banks of the country to finance the storage of grain, but no commodity considering its importance, has shared as little in the financial resources of the country as has cotton—this principally due to the lack of adequate warehouse system in the production area and lack of an open market for paper issued against the product."

COX IS FRIEND OF OHIO WOMEN

Though Voteless, His Influence Has Won Them Very Much.

Ohio women have not had suffrage except in one or two municipalities. Therefore, they have had no leverage to compel legislative or official action on subjects of special interest to them.

Yet within the past few years, laws have been passed in Ohio for reducing the hours of labor for women from 10 a day and 54 a week, to 9 a day and 50 a week, and for girls between 16 and 18 years old, to 8 a day and 48 a week.

Also, raising the age at which boys may leave school to go to work, if given certificates of permission, from 14 to 15 years, and the age at which they can leave without certificates from 16 to 18 years; and the age at which girls may work with certificates from 14 to 16 years, and without certificates from 16 to 18.

Only Choice Work. Within the last two years a bill has been passed prohibiting the employment of women in a number of undesirable occupations into which they had been drawn by the necessities of the war.

Women may no longer in Ohio be employed as crossing watchmen, section hands, bell hops, workers in blast furnaces, bootblacks or freight or baggage elevator operators. They may not be express drivers, taxi or jitney drivers, gas or electric meter readers, bowling alley or pool room helpers, or helpers in public drinking places which only men patronize even tho only substitutes for intoxicating liquors are served there.

They may not be hired for any work where they will have to lift frequently or repeatedly weights over 25 pounds.

This fact is not an argument against the necessity of woman suffrage, however. It is, according to Ohio women who have fought for suffrage but do not hesitate to say that they have obtained without it many things they sought, an argument that should make women voters look with interest at the candidacy of Gov. James Cox of Ohio for president of the United States.

Governor's Support. Governor Cox has fought the women's fight in Ohio," they say. "It was not his fault that we did not have suffrage. Twice he sponsored and signed a bill giving us presidential suffrage, but both times it was lost on a referendum instituted by so-called anti-suffragists.

"But special measures affecting women and children have had Governor Cox's close attention from the very beginning of his administration and measures that would benefit them were sure of his support."

"JOY RIDES" UP PIKE'S PEAK

Randall Tells of Extended Touring Experience In Letter.

By M. H. Randall, Sales Mgr. Security Motor Co.

A couple of weeks ago I took a Velie Model 48 on a vacation. I wanted my "mount" to have a good, easy time, so I decided to climb Pike's Peak from Oklahoma City and return. We went, we arrived, we returned, and the Velie which I drove 2040 miles, including "side trips," is now held as a premium by us of $200 above list, because I will pay that myself to keep it for a demonstrator.

Our "mount" was a new car and we never had a bit of engine or any other mechanical trouble, and—you may not believe me, but my name's Randall—we had no tire trouble.

In Colorado Springs I saw at least 25 cars that I sold. Six of them were Premiers—most of them were Velies.

From Colorado Springs to the top of Pike's Peak is 32 miles. The latter is about 14,000 feet above sea level, while Colorado Springs is about 6,000 feet above sea level. Therefore, from Colorado Springs to the top of the peak we had not only to travel 32 lineal miles, but up-grade about 8,000 feet.

Mrs. Randall refused to make the trip. Someone told her that their granduncle had a nephew who took his bride up the mountains and the bride refused to hold.

So Kenneth and I started up the incline.

We filled the radiator at Colorado Springs. The trip to Manitou is ordinary touring, but a lot of "climbers" filled their radiators there. We didn't. We continued on to Cascade, a sort of half-way point and most motor tourists filled their radiators there. But we didn't. It is customary for tourists to fill their radiators every three or four miles between Cascade and the peak, but we didn't stop for that, and we arrived without our radiator requiring water. It snowed in the meantime, and also rained.

You might think you can coast down from the peak, but you can't. You have to use low-gear, else you would wear out your brake linings. We came to Oklahoma City without having brake-linings renewed.

In fact, on the way home, due to the rains, the roads were in terrible condition. We selected the return route from Colorado Springs to Trinidad, to Raton, to Dalhart, to Amarillo. From Amarillo to Oklahoma City we pulled at least 20 machines of other makes out of the mud, and I didn't have a tire chain during the entire trip.

You can't blame me for wanting this Velie "48" for a demonstrator.

ROBERTSON WINS HAT FROM HOBBY

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 22.—Gov. J. B. A. Robertson has sent the following telegram to Governor Hobby of Texas:

"You can send me that hat any time."

All of which needs a little explanation. A year ago the two governors wagered a silk opera hat on the outcome of the Red Cross Christmas seal sale. Governor Robertson took the end that Oklahoma would make more seal sales than Texas, Robertson lost.

This year they made the same bet only the wager was made on the outcome of the Salvation Army home service campaign. At latest reports, Oklahoma was leading by approximately $75,000, and the figures are still growing.

"Not that I need the hat," Governor Robertson explained to A. N. Leecraft, state treasurer. "I want to know what to do with it after I get it. But I've often wanted a silk dicer just to look at, and I saw a chance of getting one for nothing, and believe me, I am going to collect."

KENTUCKIAN IN JAIL DOES THE DEBS STUNT NOW

WHITESBURG, Ky., Oct. 21.—FESS Whitaker is "doing a Debs" in the county jail here, and what's more, folks think he'll be successful.

Whitaker is county jailer. Also he is a prisoner serving a six months sentence in his own jail. He lets himself be a trusty. Also he is a candidate for county judge.

The facts are in this wise: Fess keeps the prettiest jail and courthouse square in these parts. Not long ago officers went to his home on reports of disturbance and Fess threw 'em out. When they locked him up he let himself out with his own keys. He was sentenced to six months. He's serving his time and electioneering on the same time, so to speak. He can't leave the city but his promise to spend four days on the county roads each, month, if elected, is making a hit with out-of-town voters.

Everybody in Letcher county knows Fess and while he's not a candidate of either party, it is an easy bet, folks say, he'll be the next county judge.

DOWN WILSON—UP LODGE

A billion people are now in rags and clamoring for clothes. The nations of the world are clamoring for cotton. Oklahoma has the cotton for sale but it brings nothing but starvation prices.

Japan is not buying a bale of American cotton. Gripped by a financial panic Japan is spending every penny she can raise in equipping a larger army and navy in preparation for another war.

Germany is not buying a bale of American cotton. Technically she is at war with the United States. Moreover her mark is worth only twenty five cents on the dollar which forces her to pay four prices for every pound of cotton she purchases.

Belgium is buying very little cotton. During the war her spindles were stolen and are now on the other side of the Rhine.

France is buying very little cotton. Her factories were razed by the Hun and her manufacturing district was left desolate. The money she could devote to the rehabilitation of her commerce is spent in maintaining the largest peace time army ever mobilized in France.

Great Britain is buying very little cotton. Her guinea has depreciated from $4.88 to $3.38 and she is in the grip of a general strike that has paralyzed her commerce.

What business have we to meddle in the affairs of Europe? What if the world is in rags and the nations are clamoring for cotton? What if the nations are bankrupt and are unable to buy cotton they need and that we have to sell? What if the only plan to reestablish the world's credit and enable the world to buy our cotton was killed by Lodge and his conspirators in the senate? Are we our brother's keeper? Are we not free from European meddling?

Then lift up your heads, O ye gates and be ye lifted up ye everlasting doors! Even if paralysis has seized our state and eternal ruin stalks the farms of Oklahoma, we have blocked the league to preserve peace and revive credit and have won a great victory for the republicans over Woodrow Wilson. We have placed handcuffs on the world's commerce and credit; so let the cotton rot in our fields. Down Wilson—up Lodge!

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt has just issued an appeal to the women of America to support Governor Cox and thereby win a victory for world peace. For many years Mrs. Catt has been the most prominent suffrage leader in America and it was largely due to her efforts that the nineteenth amendment was ratified. She is not now and never has been a democrat, but realizes that the greatest moral issue of modern times is the question of ratifying the league covenant, and therefore appeals to the women of America to turn the tide to Governor Cox and insure the peace of the world. Her appeal is the most significant development of the present campaign. It means that the motherhood of America is against war, and will not be won by such mercenary slogans as "Get the money, boys."

There is no doubt in the world that a league to preserve peace will cause war. An organization to prevent fires always causes a conflagration. An organization to preach the gospel causes sin to spread. Any movement to prevent disease will cause an epidemic. A movement to build school houses causes ignorance to predominate. If you want to give an impetus to crime just pass a few criminal statutes. The way to sod your cotton field in crab grass is to get out a lot of hoes and plows and begin to fight the grass. Break all the bird eggs in the country and the land will soon be infested with English sparrows. There is not any doubt in the world that all this is true. It has been proved true by the republican spellbinders who argue that a league to preserve peace will cause war.

Two pugnacious partisans pulled off a fight on Main street last night as the result of a political argument. One of the belligerents said that Harding had changed his position on the league issue thirteen times, while the other was positive the Marionette had changed only twelve times.

Mr. Harrelld said in his Lawton speech that some day Germany will want to go to war to free her African colonies, and that if we join the league of nations, we cannot help Germany. Oh, Mamma!

Senator Harding has made clear his views on the tariff question but is still maintaining a deep silence on the questions of typhus fever and circumcision.

Be patient, comrade. The election will soon be over and then you will have your own living to make just the same.

THOSE WERE THE HAPPY DAYS THE NUTTING SEASON

State Press Comment

Norman Transcript: Another thing Sambo isn't worrying much over the falling prices of cotton as long as the pickin' is good at the present rate of pay.

Pawhuska Capital: The Russians have demonstrated that there is nothing quite like a good trouncing to create a hankering for peace.

Tulsa Tribune: That expedition to Asia to search for the "missing link" might save a whole lot of time and money by giving the "once over" to some of these "hot dog" factories.

McAlester News-Capital: "A country without a capital is like a body without blood," so says General Obregon of Mexico. And a mere man without cash these days is like a worm without a stomach to crawl on, so say we.

Hominy News: Never mind about the league of nations, Osage county won't settle the issue, anyway. Let's get a county commissioner. We can get good roads and let the other fellows tread the rocky road of politics.

Ardmore: The usual procedure is for the business man to turn municipal politics over to others and then suffer and pay the bills. The order should be reversed from this time on in this city. Be at the nominating conventioned scheduled for convention hall to-night.

Muskogee Times-Democrat: State Senator Luther Harrison who is following Congressman Harrelld over the state, both making campaign speeches, seems to be something of a diamond in the rough. Leastwise the republicans are complaining that he is treating 'em rough, and the folks who have heard Harrison are unanimous in stating that he is a jewel.

Shawnee News: With election just fortnight away there are indications that the most sensational disclosures relative to a candidate for the presidency may be made throughout the country any day. In Ohio the fact referred to has already become an issue in the campaign and has had the effect of lining one large but very undesirable part of its citizenship solidly back of the candidate involved. It remains to be seen whether it may not yet become a national issue.

The Big Point.

Thurston—Do you mean to tell me your political parade took four hours to pass a given point? Why, there was a mere handful of you. Wetmore—There were twelve of us in it. But the given point was our peerless leader's house and he took us down to his cellar. Judge.

Goodbye, Caltr.

"John Maguire was driving his roadster toward home when he saw directly in front of him a red calf. He was too close to the animal to stop, and he tried to dodge it, but had poor luck and struck the animal between the bumper and that radiator."—Saunemin (Ill.) Headlight.

Arkansas Compress Destroyed.

By the Associated Press

EARLE, Ark., Oct. 22.—The plant of the Earle Compress company was destroyed and approximately 5,666 bales of cotton were burned in a fire which is said to have broken out almost simultaneously in several sections of the compress building early today. The loss is estimated at $600,000. A cotton gin in another part of Earle was discovered on fire about the same time, but the blaze was extinguished with little damage.

While no "night riding" activity had been reported in this section, posses of citizens were organized this morning to search the country side for suspicious persons in the belief that the fire was of incendiary origin.

PEOPLE OF INDIA SELL THEIR WHEAT AND THEN STARVE

By the Associated Press

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—How it is that notwithstanding reports of famine in India that country is exporting wheat was explained here today by the Rev. Dr. Benson Baker, who has been for many years a missionary in the heart of India. He now represents the board of foreign missions of the Methodist Episcopal church in Chicago, working in connection with the committee on conservation and advance.

"The reason is very clear," Dr. Baker said. "The people of India are so poor that the great mass of them live on the coarser grains, such as barley, rice, etc. Wheat is eaten only by the wealthy people, and is grown largely for export, so that even in the face of famine it is better to export the wheat, and to use the money received in buying coarser grains, which the poor people are accustomed to eat."

"There are always good crops in some parts of India, and now with their modern railroad systems, the government is able to transport grain from one part to another, thus in some measure alleviating the rigor of famine."

"Just now famine is due very largely to our old friend H. C. L. The cost of living in India has risen in portion more than it has in America and the people there are totally different economic basis have had a frightful time of it. Until some readjustment in wages and living expense has been made, something akin to famine conditions is bound to obtain. If India can sell its wheat, which is comparatively a high priced product, to the outside world, the money obtained will help to solve great problems there."

Dr. Baker added he was "convinced that the great mass of people in India are satisfied with British rule, and under the new reform schemes, we are going to see India make tremendous advances."

DECLINE IN PRICE OF HOGS AT OKLAHOMA CITY

By the Associated Press

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 22.—The hog market on the Oklahoma City live stock exchange suffered a drop of from 65 to 75 cents when the market opened today furnishing a top of $12.75 and bulk at $12.75 to $12.65, the lowest prices quoted in several months.

Cattle also felt a heavy decline, all classes falling from 25 to 75 cents under yesterday's quotations.

Suburban Delights.

Lem Lightfoot lives on the edge of town where he earns a fair wage by working on an adjoining farm.

A particular pet of Lem's is a small pig, which is as playful as a pup, and fully as tame.

A friend visiting Lem the other evening inquired:

"How you like it out heah, Lem?"

"Ah likes it fus rate."

"Own de house?"

"Yessah."

"No wonda you is happy."

"Yessah."

"In town we has to pay all we's asked for pig meat like dat, while out heah you has yo' own po'k chops just truttin' round at yo' heels all day long."

Elected in Pesagi Queen Contest at The Normal Today

The classes of the Normal held called meetings this morning for the purpose of electing candidates for the big contest to elect a Pe-sagi Queen next week. The contest starts next Tuesday, October 26, and continues until Saturday. It will be a great honor to the girl who wins in this contest as well as to her class. She will be given a special page in the annual and all the other candidates will be given special mention. A great deal of enthusiasm has already been shown by the students in this campaign and it is expected that it will be a hot contest up to the last minute.
The Pesagi staff is promoting this contest and will appreciate aid given by anyone to help make it a success. A contest such as this is held every year and it is a regular custom to elect the queen in this manner.

The following is a list of those elected as candidates for each class:
Graduate students, Lois Meard, Gertrude Hacker; juniors, Velma El-

Students Organize Cox-Roosevelt Club At East Central

A large and enthusiastic Cox-Roosevelt club has been organized among the student body of East Central normal by some of the live democrats of that institution.
At the first meeting of the students to plan an organization 22 were present and enrolled as charter members of the club.

The following officers of the club have been elected: President,
Raymond Hughes; vice-president,
John Cover; secretary, Miss Mildred York. It is planned to enroll every democrat among the students as a member of the club, and some live meetings of the organization are promised. Several students who have always been republicans are numbered among the club members. The movement is purely a student project, engineered and officered by students. This is said to be the first Cox-Roosevelt club organized at an Oklahoma state normal.

American Legion Plans An Elaborate Program For Armistice Day Here

Armistice Day in Ada will be observed by Norman Howard Post of the American Legion with an elaborate program. The day's festivities will commence with a ceremonial to be presented at the McSwain theater at 10 o'clock in the morning, to be followed by a football game between the Legion team and East Central State Normal in the afternoon. At night the legionnaires are to be guests of the Elks at a dance given for the former fighters and Elks.

Plans for the day's observance were gone into at a lively meeting of the local post held last night in the city hall. Among other matters taken up at the meeting were the organizing of a football team and the revival of the famous A. E. F. minstrel.

A committee was named to complete arrangements for the Armistice Day celebration on November 11. Baldwin, Schienberg, Auld Duncan and Wray were appointed on this committee.

The plan to organize a football team met with unanimous approval. The boys are to get into shape as rapidly as possible to meet the Normal team November 11. The famous minstrel show, produced by members of the 88th division in France, entitled "Who Can Tell" has been offered to this post for presentation and it was decided at this meeting that Norman Howard post produce this show for same occasion. Just as soon as all the parts arrive, all those in the city who are minutely interested whether members of the legion or not will be asked to assist in putting on the show.

A committee was appointed to devise ways and means for the procurement of Legion club rooms. This is a very pressing necessity at this time and any assistance from legion members or from those who are not members, but have the interests of the organization at heart, will be greatly appreciated. The members of this committee are D. R. Spawr, Harmon Ebey, Zeke West and J. O. Vernon.

Armistice Day Program.
The program for observance of Armistice Day will be as follows:
10 a. m. McSwain Theater.
I March from Aida.
II Blare of trumpets.
III America, by audience.

ODD FELLOWS LODGE SHOWS GOOD GROWTH

MUSKOGEE, Oct. 21. — Nearly 5,000 Oklahomans have joined the Odd Fellows since the first of the year, according to officials of the order in Muskogee for the annual meeting. The report of Grand Secretary G. W. Bruce showed that 3,348 new members were gained up to June 30, while nearly two thousand more have joined since that date, it is estimated.

The present membership in the state is about 45,000, it is declared. Of these about 9,000 are past grands while more than 90 per cent have passed the third degree. More than 21,000 degrees were conferred during the year.

About $73,000 was paid for relief to widows, orphans, and for burial purposes, the secretary's report shows.

The two orphan homes maintained by the order—at Carmen and Checotah, cost approximately $59,000 during the year, the reports show. The Carmen home is much the bigger of the two. An average of 173 have been cared for at an average cost of less than $25, it is said.

Okahoma City carried off honors in the last day of the convention. To the capital of Oklahoma went the 1921 gathering and the probable

Leading Doctors Are Prescribing Swamp Chill Tonic

Here's good news for the afflicted—good news for the sufferers from malaria who haven't yet tried this wonderful old remedy—Swamp Chill and Fever Tonic.

Ask your neighbors about it; everybody who has tried it will talk to you in words of praise. Then go to your dealer and get a bottle—follow the simple directions—and in not more than three days you'll entirely rid yourself of all the misery of shivering, shaking, and burning with fever.

Swamp Chill Tonic is absolutely reliable. It is tasteless and easy to take. It contains no calomel. It is made of purely vegetable ingredients and iron—exactly the right combination for the effective relief of malaria, chills, ague, fever, colds, grippe, "flu," etc.

ble location of the permanent headquarters of the state organization. Along with these honors will go, it is said, the naming of Oklahoma City both as the permanent headquarters of the lodge and the permanent convention city.

Okahoma City has been getting the convention every other year for some time past, and many in the order have favored making it the permanent convention city. Its selection for 1921 means that few conventions in the future will be held outside of the capital. Other cities are out of the running, not because they can't entertain the convention, but because of the more central location of the capital.

ICE MEN WIN IN FIGHT AGAINST FED. MEDDLING

The controversy between the United States District Attorney Taylor, of the northern federal district of Texas, and the ice companies of Dallas and Fort Worth over ice prices, mentioned in the September issue, has been settled. The ice men won, but not until after injunction proceedings were instituted asking that United States attorneys be restrained from interfering with the ice industry and from filing complaints or charges against the plaintiffs. After injunction proceedings were instituted, and an all day hearing, a compromise was effected between the federal attorney and the ice manufacturers. The prices on which the compromise was effected was set at 75 cents per hundred pounds from the wagons and 60 cents over the factory platforms. The ice men won the contention on every point in the compromise proceedings.

The conference at which the compromise was effected was held on August 31. On September 8, United States Attorney Taylor announced that the ice price investigation and prosecutions in north Texas had been abandoned upon advice from the Attorney General's office at Washington that ice prices were not covered in the Lever act, and all cases against dealers therefore were dropped.

Once again we have an illustration of a public officer using his office to discredit reputable business men without authority of law to do so.

After creating in the minds of the people the impression that the ice men are taking advantage of the public; that they are profiteers and are in combination to throttle competition; that without any justification whatever they have placed an excessive price on the article they sell, and threatening criminal prosecution of reputable business men, unless they comply with his arbitrary commands, he seeks advice from his superiors, and is informed that he has no authority for the action taken. As far as the district attorney is concerned the case is settled. He has not been injured thereby, but what of the ice manufacturers?

The agitation started by the district attorney's action which has been given wide publicity by the press is bearing its usual fruit. A movement to establish a municipal plant is receiving favorable consideration by the board of supervisors of Dallas and an investigation for that purpose is to be started by the board.

One of the leading papers of Dallas is a lengthy editorial entitled "Unregulated Monopoly," asks the question whether it would be well to transfer the business of manufacturing and distributing ice from the category of competition and unregulated enterprises to that of monopoly and regulated ones. It states that one is not apt to go far into the question without being surprised by the number and force of the reasons which urge that this be done, and by the paucity and feebleness of those which oppose it, if indeed there are any. It further states that to declare the business of making and selling ice a public utility would be to treat it as a monopoly. But that is what it is already substantially and in reality. Having the form, the ice business as now carried on has none of the substance of a competitive business.

It is always thus. Every time a public official seeks a little notoriety he immediately starts an investigation of the ice business. It is termed an investigation, but it is not. It is merely an attack on men who have invested their money in a business enterprise and are entitled to a return on their investment. The attacks are always instituted during the hot summer

Locomotive Enginemen and Firemen Consider Sym-

By the Associated Press
LONDON, Oct. 22.—At an executive meeting of the associated society of locomotive engine men and firemen today, it was decided to defer action on the question of sympathetic action with the miners until Monday. The society is an important and wealthy section of the railroad men distinct from the National union of railroad men and its decision is considered important.
The meeting of the miners' executives tomorrow is generally believed to presage a possible reopening of negotiations with the government.
It is understood the meeting was called on representations of house of commons members representing the miners.
This is the first meeting of the executives since the strike and it had been repeatedly stated that the executives would not meet unless approached by the government, or until there were fresh proposals for consideration.

At noon the river gauge here stood at three feet and four inches, between one and two feet above normal according to Slaughter.

Walter Wray Says The Ring Is Cinched Unless Signs Fail

Walter N. Wray, Ada's candidate for the ring in the big shrine ceremonial to be held at Sulphur on the 28th, says that unless all signs fail he has the ring cinched. He is not listening to the practical jokers and polliars who are trying to have sport at his expense, and he says that no grass will grow under his feet between now and the day of the big doings.
Up to the present time there seems to be only three candidates in the race, one at Holdenville, one at Madill and Mr. Wray of this city. It is rumored that a candidate from Allen will materialize on the day of the celebration here in Ada, but nothing definite seems to be known about it at the present time neither has the identity of the gentleman been revealed.
At the meeting of the county Shrine club here last Wednesday evening Mr. Wray, the candidate from Madill, and Mr. Wray were both present and both made excellent addresses before the club.
Local Shriners say that Wray has the edge on the field and that there is no doubt whatever but that he will win in a walk. Of course much depends upon the turn of the tide on the day of the ceremonial, but Wray's boosters and campaign managers are all most optimistic and are receiving pledges of support from every section of the country in the jurisdiction.

Shrine Committees Busy Making Final Plans for Big Show

The various committees composed of local Shriners, appointed at the county club meeting Wednesday night, are hustling early and late now in preparation for the entertainment to be given the nobility of India Temple when they arrive here next Wednesday afternoon.

Most of the merchants and business men, it is understood, are going to decorate their places with the Shrine colors for the occasion, and Main street, at least, will take on a gay and gaudy appearance by early Wednesday morning. It is the hope of the local Indians that every business man on Main street will see that some form of decoration is displayed in his windows on this occasion, and a "welcome" sign here and there is suggested as a filler. The colors of the order are red, green and gold, and they are usually displayed with green and gold streamers, with red as the center piece.

The parade committee is busy and promises some thrills for the unwashed onlookers who will throng the streets when the big parade starts at two o'clock in the afternoon. The feed committee says the "eats" will be on hand in abundance and all the other committees promise to come up to the scratch with their end of the load.

All in all, everything looks favorable for the biggest and best show the nobility of India has witnessed for many moons and it is the desire of the Ada contingent that no other city along the route of the pilgrimage do more to make themselves remembered than the city of Ada.

HARDING WINDS UP CAMPAIGN OUTSIDE OHIO

By the Associated Press
MARION, Ohio, Oct. 22.—With his return to Marion today from his short campaign excursion into New York state, Senator Harding had before him four days of freedom from speech making, before beginning the swing around the circle of his own state that will wind up his campaign.
The speech at Buffalo last night completed the nominee's list of engagements outside of Ohio.
His front porch program also is virtually at an end and the only speaking date now definitely to be filled are the four next week in Cleveland, Akron, Cincinnati and Columbus.

Nowadays,
American Lady (on Canadian shore, to boatman)—Could I get you to row me across the river to the States?
Boatman—Sorry, ma'am, but there's two hundred Chinamen and six hundred quarts of liquor ahead of you.—Judge.

Local Automobile Dealers

The F. A. Ford garage has sold an Essex touring car to W. J. Hughes of the Ada Electric Shoe shop. All other business is reported to be good and a full force of men is kept employed.

The Nash Motor company has issued bulleting stating that there will be no reduction in the price of Nash cars and trucks. The reason for this is because the company now sells the cars as cheap as it is possible and the present high grade of material cannot be put in the cars at reduced prices.

The car business in general is not very good, due to the fact that the farmers are getting such low prices for their cotton and are not in the market for cars. Repair work goes on about the same, each garage getting on an average of about an equal share of it.

The W. E. Harvey garage reports the following sales of Ford cars in the past two weeks: J. E. Sutherland, Center, truck; Mrs. Minnie Nelson, Francis, sedan; E. S. Crabtree, Stonewall, touring car; B. E. Hennigan, Ada, touring; Cecil Riddle, Ada, roadster; S. W. Hill, Ada, touring; C. G. Anderson, Ada, touring; T. D. Williams, Stonewall, touring; G. M. Click, Ada, touring; E. C. Peay, Ada, touring; C. W. Smith, Ada, touring. They have also delivered several trucks to dealers in other towns. They are as follows:

One truck to the Ford agent at Konawa, one to the Shirley Motor company at Wynnewood and two to the Reed Motor company at Pauls Valley. The work in the shop is better than usual and everybody is on the job.

The premier was expected to make a definite announcement of the stand the government would take.

GO TO THEATRE

McSwain.

The "Virginia Beauties," which opened at the McSwain Theater yesterday for a three-day engagement, were well received. This show consists of 14 people, a good harmony quartet, a clever blackface comedian, yodelers, a live peppy beauty chorus changing their program each day. These people will be in Ada today and Saturday.

On the picture program comes the New Bryant Washburn picture, "The Six Best Cellars," which is at the McSwain Theater today, is up to the minute in theme. It treats humorously of prohibition. The original story was by Holworthy Hall and Hugh Kahler.

Mr. Washburn has the role of Henry Carpenter, member of an exclusive set of young married couples, whose pride is their well stocked cellars. Henry runs short just on the eve of a big party at which he is host. Receiving word from his Aunt Virginia, a staunch prohibitionist, that several cases of liquor have been stored in her cellar by an errant half-brother, now departed.

Requested to destroy them, Henry removes the precious stuff to his own house. At the last moment he discovers that the bottles are all empty. To save his face at the dinner, he launches into a fiery speech against King Alcohol. The prohibition element in the town welcomes him and wants him to run for congress. But word comes from the aunt of another store of liquor discovered in her cellar. This time the bottles are full. What is Henry to do? Become a social light or go into politics with an anti-boose crowd? The answer is left to the audience.

At the American.

"Sex" is startling, even bold, in spots, but very, very nice.

The picture at the American today has undeniable virtues and just as undeniable vices but they belong to the characters in the piece, for "Sex" has a "soul."

We have heard a great deal during the past year about "pictures with a soul," but we never quite "got" the significance of the "soul-picture" until we saw "Sex," with Louise Glaum as the star.

A problem, beautifully presented and cleverly analyzed that leaves us with a sense of the infinite at the end—which is distinctly unusual—and which is entirely free from the sticky-sweet sentimentality of too many photoplays, in the theme of "Sex," produced by J. Parker Read Jr., and directed by Fred Niblo.

The story of "Sex" is universal. Its treatment by that brilliant young producer who likewise starred Miss Glaum in "Sahara," and "The Lone Wolf's Daughter," is unusual. We never quite appreciate, before seeing "Sex," how skilfully such a subject could be handled and yet with what vivid power. There was nothing overdrawn, neither is there anything evasive about "Sex," which discloses Miss Glaum as an actress of supreme attainments and great personal charm and versatility. The art of the producer, applied with lavish, yet discriminating hand, and the talents of the star makes "Sex" superlative entertainment and food for thought. In the cast supporting Miss Glaum are our old friends; Irving Cummings, Myrtle Steedman, William Conklin and Peggy Pearce.

DIDN'T WANT THE VOTE BUT WILL EXERCISE THE RIGHT OF SUFFRAGE

CINCINNATI.—How time do change.

Women who didn't want to vote have decided to cast their votes the same as the suffragists who fought for the suffrage amendment.

"What we must do now is educate the women voters to the highest possible efficiency as factors in good citizenship and good government," said Mrs. Joseph McCloskel, of the league of women voters here.

"Although I resent having suffrage thrust upon me and upon other women at this time, still, if it cannot be deferred I shall accept the situation and feel it my duty to vote," declared Mrs. Jerome Sturm, active in anti-suffragist organization.

"If I become a voter it is under protest," said Mrs. Nicholas Longworth sr., honorary president of the Hamilton county association opposed to woman suffrage. "I trust that the political party in which I have faith may win."
